SUNDAY.....JANUARY 24

Eastern advertising Agent 230-234 Temple Court Building New York City, E. Kratt: gen'

SURVEYOR GEN'L. REPORT.

From the Surveyor General's annual report to the Governor, the following very apropos comments on Nevada are taken:

Nevada could produce and manufacture every article it consumes, with perhaps, the exception of tea and coffee, and is capable of supporting ten times its present population, but its wonderful mineral resources have in times past commanded attention to exclusion of every other resource. Fortunes have so often been made in a few months or years in mining that public attention has centered in that direction, and a very small percentage of the people who came to Nevada did so with the intention of making it a permanent home. People came here to get rich, and, when fortune favored them, they retired to some of the great money centers of the world and carried with them the wealth, which, if invested in the development of the State whence it came, would have made Nevada the pride of the Union.

The Mackay cable and the postal telegraph were constructed with money dug out of the Nevada mines by Nevada citizens. One of the largest and costliest buildings in New York City, or perhaps in the world, was erected with funds derived from Nevada enterprise by D. O. Mills, who recently duplicated the structure in San Francisco. The Palace and Baldwin hotels, Grand Opera House, New California Theater, blocks of stores and warehouses and scores of costly residences in San Francisco, Oakland and elsewhere in the United States and Europe, have been built with Nevada money. Port Costa warehouses and docks, great newspapers, vineyards, orchards, wheat fields and many other great enterprises in California, have been inaugurated and completed with Nevada money.

If the $600,000,000 of gold and silver taken out of Nevada mines had been invested at home, the waters of the Truckee, Carson, Walker and Humboldt rivers would not now be flowing to waste.

If Congress would favor Nevada one-hundredth part as much as it does New England, there would be no cause for complaint about its scant population. It affords no protection to anything we produce. It closes the mints against our silver, and puts hides, wool and other products of the State on the free list. We have no rivers and harbors to entitle us to part of the millions appropriated from the treasury for the improvement of navigable streams, and the Interstate Commerce Act is made applicable to the State only when there is a disagreement between the railroad and employes.

If New England was treated as Nevada is by the General Government, it would not have ten inhabitants to the square mile, and Boston would be abandoned to the owls and bats.

All this is good food for reflection. It is consoling to know that after having been "dragged for millions," and abused and handicapped in every possible manner for more than twenty years, poverty and want are strangers to Nevada, and that we are still able to contribute to the support of our defamers.—Journal.

The San Francisco Report says that Charles Funkenstein has lost his name and fortune. Its hard luck to lose a fortune, but a man might part with such a name and still bear up under his loss.

The bill introduced in the Sacramento legislature providing for the non-limitation of time required by law for the operation of railroads in California has passed the California legislature. With its passage the only obstacle in the way of building the prospective Lake Tahoe railroad has been removed and the work will be commenced this Spring. The ground was surveyed by Will Bliss and party last Fall.

Members of the Legislature are requested to leave orders for all daily California or local papers (except Carson papers) at John G. Fox's, opposite the State Capitol. A full line of all kinds of stationery and legislative bill files on hand.
